

Marriage in Cyprus

Question:

My boyfriend and I are the citizens of Russia. We want to get married in Cyprus. Where do we need to apply and what documents are required for this? What do we need to do that our marriage will be recognized in Russia?

Response:

Citizens of Russia can conclude a marriage in the Russian Embassy in the Republic of Cyprus. For this you need to make an appointment (this can be done in the Embassy of the Russian Federation in Nicosia or in Paphos, in the Honorary Consulate of the Russian Federation), submit an application and in a month you will conclude a marriage. You will receive a certificate of marriage of the Russian established standard form; of course, such a document is valid in Russia.
