

General Power of Attorney on an international passport

Question

If the validity of the internal Russian passport has expired, can I make the general power of attorney or donation agreement for the apartment in Russia on a valid international passport?

Answer

Yes, of course, you can do it. International passport is a document certifying the identity of a citizen of the Russian Federation outside the Russian Federation. And in the power of attorney will be indicated that you currently reside in the Republic of Cyprus.