

Change of internal passport without a residence registration

Question

I was de-registered from the previous place of residence in Russia, because of permanent residence in Cyprus. Will I be able in this case to change the internal Russian passport?

Answer

Yes, you can. You should contact to the passport office according to your place of temporary residence and there you will get necessary information for the preparation of documents for the change of internal passport.